

Actividad 1.2

Progresión 2: Emplea el presente continuo en su forma negativa e interrogativa para negar y cuestionar acciones que están sucediendo en el momento de narrarse a través de textos, cuentos, caricaturas o narraciones.

A. Comprende la estructura para formar la forma negativa e interrogativa del presente continuo y construye 1 oración negativa y 1 interrogativa indicando cada uno de sus componentes.

¿Cómo se construyen?

Negativa: sujeto + verbo to-be + not + gerundio del verbo + complemento

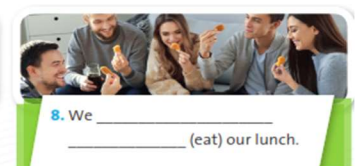

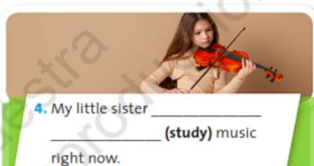

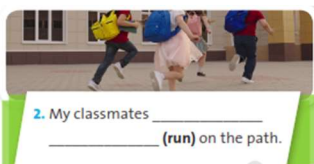

Ejemplo: Michael is not studying English at this moment

Interrogativa: verbo to-be + sujeto + gerundio del verbo + complemento + ?

Ejemplo: Is Michael studying English at this moment ?

B. Usa los verbos en los paréntesis para completar las oraciones en su forma negativa.

Example: My uncle isn't sleeping (sleep) now

C. Lee el texto e identifica las oraciones que están en forma negativa e interrogativa del presente continuo

Rosa: Hi! How are you?

Mom: Rosita! My little girl. What is happening? Is everything OK?

Rosa: Yes, mom. Don't worry! I'm calling you because I miss you so much. Is dad there? Is he sleeping?

Mom: No, he isn't sleeping. He's fixing the old van.

Rosa: Again? Well, it's an old van. What about my sister? Is she chatting now?

Mom: Yes, she is chatting. She's sitting in front of the computer all the time. She isn't doing anything at all!

Rosa: That's too bad. Talk to her! Is grandma having health problems?

Mom: No, she isn't having any problems. She's only tired, but you know, she's not seventeen. And you? Are you having a good time in the USA? Are you eating well?

Rosa: Yes, mom. I'm having the greatest time of my life. And eating? Well, I can say that I am trying very different dishes. I miss your delicious enchiladas!

Mom: Oh, dear! When are you coming home?

Rosa: I have three days off in November. So, maybe I can go to Mexico.

Mom: Excellent! Your enchiladas are waiting for you! I love you.

Rosa: Love you too, mom!
